

YVETTE SCHOLTZ

Yvette has been involved in real estate residential sales since 2015 when she joined the dynamic team of Gleniqua Properties.

Prior to starting her career in real estate, she was a franchise owner of a retail shop for a period of 5 years.

She recognizes the value and trust her clients place in her and strives to exceed their expectations.

Yvette is a conscientious real estate agent whose friendly approach, integrity and credibility is the foundation of being a successful and valuable member of the agency.

As a qualified Property Practitioner she awaits the opportunity to assist in all aspects dealing with the purchasing and selling of homes.